Instructions for Authors

1. Preparation of Papers for the Proceedings

All papers (presentation, poster with short presentation, poster) will be published in the proceedings in A4 format. Guidelines for preparation of papers apply to all presentation types.

Format and margins: A4 with 25 mm margins all around.

Font: Arial Regular, single spaced.

Language: Papers can be submitted in English, German or French.

Paper title: 12 pt, Caps and lower case, bold, and centered. Should be followed by one 12 pt line spacing.

Author(s) names: 11 pt and centered. Names of multiple authors should be written on the same line and separated by commas. Author's name should consist of First name, Middle initial and Family name, followed immediately by a superscript which refers to author's affiliation. The same superscript should be used for authors of the same affiliation. Should be followed by two 11pt line spacing.

Affiliation: 9 pt and at the bottom of the first page. Affiliation of the authors should appear in the same sequence of the authors. Each affiliation should be written in a separate line with no line spacing in between, and preceded by the superscript which references the associated author. Author affiliation should appear as followed: company or university (institution, college, etc.), department name or company division, city, country, and e-mail.

Abstract: Heading of the abstract is the word "Abstract", written bold. Abstract body should be about 150 words. Both the abstract heading and body 9 pt, italic, justified. If the paper is in French or German, the abstract must be in English instead of the original language. In this case, the paper title in English instead of the word "Abstract" must be written as abstract heading (Caps and lower case). Last line of abstract should be followed by one 10 pt line spacing.

Keywords: Up to six keywords should be provided to indicate the paper subject and content. 10 pt, left-justified, and first letter of each word in capital. Should be followed by one 10 pt line spacing.

Body of the paper: Major headings, subheadings and main body of the paper 10 pt and justified. Use decimal numbering for all major headings and subheadings. All headings bold and only the first letter of the first word capitalized. Leave no space after the headings and leave one 10 pt line spacing between paragraphs. Leave one 10 pt line spacing before each heading.

References: References cited in the body of the paper should be consecutively numbered and the related number(s) of cited reference(s) should be placed in square brackets in the text. The list of references must be provided at the end of the text under the heading "References" giving the information as follows:

For an article: Author's surname, initials. Year of publication in brackets. Title of the article (Caps and lower case). Name, volume and issue number of the journal (italic), page numbers.

For a book: Author's surname, initials. Year of publication in brackets. Title of the book (Caps and lower case; italic) (Page numbers if necessary). City of publication: Name of the publisher.

For an official publication of an organisation: Initials of the organisation. Year of publication in brackets. Name of the organisation (Caps and lower case). Title of the publication (Caps and lower case, italic). City of publication: Name of the publisher.

Heading of the references as well as the list has to be 9 pt and justified.

Figures: Figures should be numbered and have a 9 pt caption underneath. Please note that the text will be printed in black and white.

Tables: Tables should be numbered and have a 9 pt caption above.

Equations: Equations should be numbered consecutively and right justified in brackets, 10 pt.

Length: Including all figures, tables, references maximum eight pages (please prepare your paper within the page limits of even numbers e.g.: 4, 6, 8 pages).

Page numbers: Please do not insert page numbers and do not use footnotes or endnotes except for the affiliation on the first page.

2. CD-ROM

The proceedings will be published both in printed form and on CD-ROM. The proceedings CD can include coloured figures.

3. Submission of Papers

Papers should be submitted in PDF file via the web site of the conference (<http://www.luxeuropa2009.org.tr/papersubmission.aspx>). Please note that the PDF-file should not exceed 3.5 MB and should not be locked. The deadline for electronic submission of papers is June 1. Papers will be printed directly from your original. Papers that vary from the format presented here will not be accepted.

By submitting your paper you agree its publication in proceedings and on CD.
